THIRD BREAK FROM INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

Glendon Tuthill One of Two Lads Who Escaped from Vergennes Institution Last Week.

MORRISVILLE, April 19.—Glendon Tuthill and George Archer of Elmire, both about 16 years old, the former being the lad who figured about two years ago, and again a year ago, in many breaks, including the looting of the Stowe postoffice and stations on the St. J. and L. C. Central Vermont and Rutland railroads, were found yesterday by Sheriff George Town of Morrisville near the T. A. Simonds mill in Elmire where they had established themselves since escaping last week from the Vermont industrial school at Vergennes.

The two lads reached this section three breaks have been traced to them. It is Tuthill's third escape from the industrial school. The boys were taken to Vergennes by an officer who came from the school today.

As no publicity had been given to the escape of the boys, notwithstanding the had reputation borne by Tuthill, the citizens of this section were not aware that the youthful burglars were at large until they were arrested.

The boys were found near the home of an aunt of the Tuthill boy in Woodbury, their place of seclusion being in the town of Elmire. That they intended to make an extended stay is evident from the supplies they had on hand.

A score of heads within three or four days led the authorities to suspect the Tuthill boy as the officers were aware of his escape from Vergennes.

The recent breaks, which it is claimed have been traced to the boys, began last Saturday night when the depot restaurant in Morrisville was entered and about $100 worth of eatables taken. Entrance was made to the building by forcing a window with an iron bar which was stolen from the tool house used by employees of the S. J. and L. C. railroad.

On Sunday two horse blankets were stolen from the Simonds mill near where the boys were located. On Monday night R. M. Hubbard's store at Wolcott was entered and a large amount of merchandise was taken.

When the fugitives were discovered they had in their possession and in their camp about $40 worth of goods, including a watch, rubber boots, rifle and groceries enough to stock a good-sized family for a number of weeks.

It is said that the two boys had not been permitted to associate to any great extent for some time at the industrial school until recently when they met in the hospital ward where, it is believed, they hatched the scheme of making a break for liberty.

He Had Qualified.

A stranger in an Indiana village thought he might improve the time by attending service in the local church.

At the conclusion of a lengthy talk, the minister announced that he should like to meet the Board. The stranger, in company with several other persons, proceeded to walk to the front of the church. The pastor, thinking there must be some misunderstanding, said to him: "I believe, sir, you are mistaken. This is just to be a meeting of the Board."

"Well," replied the visitor, "I have listened to you talk for more than an hour and if anyone has been more bored than I have been, I should like to know who it is."—The Christian Herald.

Heads, You Win; Tails, I Lose.

"There's law for this and law for that,"

The man in business sighed. It keeps me guessing where I'm at. And how my hands are tied.

My great concern today is not that I may walk to the front of the church. I have to give my every thought to keeping out of jail.

For profits that may comfort me. No longer can I plan, It's taking all my time to be a law-abiding man.

Oh, sorry is the plight I'm in. I have no path to choose. The court will nab me if I win, The sheriff if I lose."—
